Exceptional high slip resistance with ASLAN Print'nGo

Floor graphics are an effective way of positioning eye-catching advertising messages on the floor. However, due to the risk of slipping, it is very important that floor advertising of this kind meet the appropriate safety standard regulations.

ASLAN presents the new floor graphics films Print'nGo available in white and transparent, that correspond to the non-slip safety class R 13 as well as the norm for slip-resistance on wet barefoot walkways DIN 51097 (class B). Additionally they hold an insurance certificate against possible personal injuries.

Just print and apply the new ASLAN floor graphics film for guaranteed slip-resistant, eye-catching floor advertising.
